THE AUTHORS GUILD
Words, Ideas, and Thinkers

Born and raised in Australia, Geraldine Brooks was a correspondent for The Wall Street Journal for more than a decade, covering crises on the Mideast, Africa, and the Balkans. With her husband Tony Horwitz, she won the Overseas Press Club Award for best print coverage of the first Gulf war. She is the author of three works of nonfiction and six novels, including the 2006 Pulitzer Prize winner, March, and bestsellers Year of Wonders, People of the Book and, most recently, Horse. She was a Radcliffe Fellow in 2006 and a visiting lecturer at Harvard in 2021. She lives on Martha's Vineyard where she serves as a Conservation Commissioner. She was named an Officer in the Order of Australia in 2016.
